

Wetland Word Search

Wisconsin has over 5 million acres of wetlands. Sandhill Cranes and endangered Whooping Cranes depend on wetlands for food, water, shelter, and protection from predators in order to survive. Complete this word search to learn more about the function of wetlands, and the plants and animals who rely on them.

Snake

Shelter

Bullfrog

Cattail

Duckweed

Arrowhead

Water

Nursery

Bulrush

Lily pad

Filter

Whooping Crane

Food

Whooping Crane
Grus americana

Fish

Mallard